

When I first moved to Denver, I wasn't interested in public radio much, then I found the station K-LOVE at 91.1 FM. It's had such an impact on my life, helping me through some lonely times while being away from my family. If K-LOVE were forced off of the air, thousands of lonely people, just in the Denver area, might not find the comfort I've been blessed with.